STRANGE STORIES OF A DETECTIVE
on
CURIOSITIES OF CRIME,
BY
A. J. REED, Number One of the Detective Police

PRICE 50 CENTS.

There is something exceedingly fascinating in stories like these. Their most interest engendered by the nature of the narrative, the reader goes to work in the pursuit of the criminal, and watches him relish the closing of the net around the object of the officer's pursuit. Some of these contests of crime with the agents of justice are exceedingly unimagined, and the reader is surprised to find himself honestly and a keen perception of character are engaged against a set of rascals to the discomfiture of the

TO AVOID DISAPPOINTMENT, dealers in papers must have in their orders by 4 o'clock, A. M.

Orders for Sunday papers must be handed on Saturday by 4 o'clock P. M. n17c0d3

Our advertisers almost crowd the columns out of doors, but it is a cheering indication of the increase of the business of the paper.

Gen. Meade's Report.—On our first page is a full and complete report of the battle of Gettysburg, and the movements attending campaign in Maryland and Pennsylvania. Meade gives a full and complete account of the battle, which is much better than any other statement. Nearly three thousand killed, and doubtless many other casualties resulted fatally. The rebel General Lee's army was completely routed.

It was also published the official report of the battle, which is a full and complete account of the battle, which is much better than any other statement. Nearly three thousand killed, and doubtless many other casualties resulted fatally. The rebel General Lee's army was completely routed.
